The Family expresses their deep appreciation to everyone for their prayers and acts of love. May God give you grace and peace.

23rd Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows. Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life, And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Bethel Baptist Church

Tatums, Oklahoma

Rev. Frank Lawson, Pastor

Willis "Bill" Elijah Winslett is the eleventh of twelve children born to Willie and Alberta Lovejoy Winslett in Tatums, Oklahoma on October 8, 1917. His parents and siblings preceded him in death.

Bill began his spiritual life with the Bethel Baptist Church as a young man where he worshipped with his family and friends. He loved to sing and sang with the men's chorus and his church. He was a gentle, kind man that showed love and affection to others. He graduated from Tatums High School before beginning his travels.

Bill married Huberta Swindall in 1938 and lived in California for some time. To this union two children were born, a son, who preceded him in death and a daughter, Earnestine. To his union with Vandora Shaw one son was born, Raye Eberly Winslett. Raye Winslett preceded his father to rest.

Bill lived in Chicago for many years and worked as a factory worker before returning to Tatums to live. His favorite pastime was running his hound dogs, hunting and fishing. He was a successful trainer of setters, pointers and hounds.

He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Earnestine and Leroy Phillips of Chicago, Illinois; six grandchildren, Leroy Phillips, Jr. and Toya Buse's, both of Chicago, Raye Winslett, Jr. and D'jon Winslett of Los Angeles California and Quaton Ja-Ray and Deaun-ta Lawon Winslett of Tatums, Oklahoma; seven great grandchildren, Deshawn, Devonte, Dale, Parrie, Paris, Kendall and Kenonie Phillips all of Chicago; many nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.
